Subject: Inquiry Regarding Street Name "Ramscliff"

Dear Parishioner,

The Parish Council was asked to investigate the street name "Ramscliff." It's clear that there has been some confusion regarding the spelling, especially with Google's incorrect representation.

The Parish Council worked with North West Leicestershire District Council and Leicestershire County Council to find the answer.

After a thorough research which included checking various official sources such as the Local Land and Property Gazetteer, Royal Mail's Postcode Address Finder, the Planning Portal, and the Electoral Register, it seems that the correct spelling should indeed be "Ramscliff" without the additional 'e' at the end.

The biggest issue is found on google. The easiest solution is to contact Google and any other companies spelling 'Ramscliff' incorrectly and request the correction of the street name spelling.

The recent Local Plan documents which spelt Ramscliff with an e has been amended.

Following this the Parish Council feel they can do no more.

Kind regards
